Description

This residence is an architectural marvel embedded directly into the natural contours of the estate’s slopes. Guests enter through a dramatic portal into a central courtyard that serves as the heart of the home. The living spaces and private quarters are organized in a unique four-leaf clover layout, creating a natural flow between the three air-conditioned bedrooms and the communal areas.

Each bedroom features a four-poster king bed, large wardrobes, and floor-to-ceiling windows that frame the lush foliage. The defining feature of these rooms is the remote-operated skylight, allowing you to open the ceiling to the forest canopy or the night sky at the touch of a button. For entertainment, the lounge opens onto a covered deck that features a private lap pool and a large white screen with a movie projector, turning the poolside into a private starlit cinema. Inside, the lounge offers semi-circular window divans designed like indoor hammocks—ideal for a quiet afternoon of reading or napping.
