Description

Set within a 500-acre working coffee estate, this quiet retreat features a linear design where three ground-floor bedrooms open onto a long, shared verandah facing the main garden. An external staircase leads to a spacious first-floor lounge, a dedicated social hub for dining, board games, and table tennis. This upper level is defined by French doors that open onto an expansive, elevated sitout, offering panoramic views of the lush forest canopy.

Beyond the villa, guests can immerse themselves in plantation life with guided coffee walks, ATV drives through the estate trails, or evening bonfires under the stars. It is a refined sanctuary that perfectly balances the charm of a working estate with the tranquility of a private mountain escape.
