Description

Located in the commercial heart of Ahmedabad, this 1970s Modernist family home has been transformed into a sophisticated 6-bedroom luxury boutique B&B that pays tribute to the city's rich architectural and artistic heritage. Each themed room serves as a curated gallery—from the minimalist Safed Room with its Nakashima-inspired desk to the Nandi Suite featuring a private hot tub and a "Jalsaghar" music room. The house balances the austere influence of Gandhi with local Gujarati decadence, showcasing Art Deco furniture in the Moti Mahal Lounge and an playful 3D monkey mural by artist Amit Ambalal in the back courtyard. Guests can enjoy sanctuary-like interiors and authentic vegetarian Amdavadi cuisine, making it the perfect base for exploring the nearby Sabarmati Ashram or the iconic works of Corbusier and Doshi.
