Description

Located in the quiet hamlet of Thirupugalur, two hours east of Tanjore, this 120-year-old restored village home is a soulful reflection of quintessential Tamil heritage. The villa transitions from a traditional front thinnai through a beautifully carved main door into a sunken teak-pillared courtyard, where 7th-century poetic inscriptions meet contemporary still-life photography.

Its four bedrooms feature headboards inspired by temple dancers and modern skylit bathrooms, while the common areas include a Nandi-themed dining hall and a lounge with traditional swings. From the citrus-tree courtyard to the banana-leaf meals inspired by temple colors, this home offers an intimate immersion into the heart of the Kaveri Delta.
