Description

Surrounded by rolling tea estates in the Western Nilgiris, this minimalist three-bedroom sanctuary is designed to blur the lines between luxury and the rugged mountain landscape. The architecture is defined by swirl-textured white walls and expansive, 270-degree accordion-style French doors that transform the scenery into an "ever-changing natural painting." The villa features a mix of contemporary Auroville-crafted furniture and local heritage, such as traditional Toda tapestries in the cozy mezzanine family room. With a grand master suite opening directly onto a lush garden, a mezzanine bedroom tucked under sloped wooden ceilings, and a dedicated team including a personal chef, the home offers a high-end, tranquil base just a short drive from the heart of Ooty.
